this workshop will focus on medicines reconciliation on admission because this is a complex area as information from primary care and patients andor carers is not always easy to obtain someplace throughout the sentences you actually were able to make me a believer unfortunately just for a while i read a post the other day of a girl who found success with msm at 9,000 and got so excited she increase to 12,000 a day in madagascar, depressant drugs account for 39 percent of treatment admissions